The annual HARRISON-SHAW Preaching Mission will be held this year at an earlier date, September 24-27. The speaker will be Rev. Barbara Brokhoff, approved evangelist from the Florida Conference, in great demand for events such as this. Services will be held each evening with an open invitation to the community to attend. A nursery and a room for prayer will be provided. The Ministers' Luncheon (by invitation) will be held Monday at noon.

Dr. Brokhoff is a pastor and evangelist, the wife of a Lutheran minister who taught at Candler before retirement.

The Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission was established in memory of W. H. Harrison, Sr. of Asheville and J. Paul Shaw of Raleigh. Its purpose is to bring the ministry of outstanding religious leaders of various denominations to the people of this area.

Brokhoff To Conduct Preaching Mission

By CATHY McJUNKIN
Staff Writer

The Rev. Barbara Brokhoff is a role model to many of the women she meets around the country.

But for the United Methodist evangelist from Clearwater, Fla., that job is secondary to preaching the gospel.

"I never mind being the recipient of tokenism or being a role model," said Brokhoff, who will lead the annual interdenominational Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission Sept. 24-27 at Trinity United Methodist Church on Haywood Road in Asheville.

"But all that is secondary to what I do; it's secondary to preaching God's word."

An evangelist for the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Brokhoff has been a pastor, teacher and evangelist for more than 20 years.

She previously was an evangelist for the Missouri East and North Georgia conferences and her pastorates included churches of 750 and 1,100 members.

Brokhoff has the distinction of being the first woman minister to preach and teach at the N.C. Pastors' School and at United Methodist annual conferences in Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico and Texas. She also was the first woman to be invited to preach in the Lenten series at the Chicago Temple, and returned for five years.

She is the first woman and the first United Methodist minister to lead the Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission in Asheville.

"I meet with fewer and fewer glares these days," Brokhoff said. "But there are still a lot of people who are not sure that a woman should preach. I don't question their convictions, but I have to be obedient to God and he wants me to preach."

A native of Mexico, Mo., Brokhoff is married to John R. Brokhoff, a minister in the Lutheran Church of America.

She has written four books and her sermons are published in "Insights," "Kerygma," "The Pulpit Digest" and "Doran's Ministers Manual."

Services will be at 7:30 p.m. each evening with informal singing at 7:15 p.m.

The schedule is as follows:

- Sept. 24 — "God Is A Desperado," the Rev. W.D. Clodfelter, Trinity United Methodist Church, presiding minister; reception following service.
- Sept. 25 — "Second-Hand Faith or First-Hand Experience," the Rev. Harold K. Bales, presiding minister.
- Sept. 26 — "It's OK To Be Mad At God," the Rev. Aubrey Folk, presiding minister.
- Sept. 27 — "You Need Three Homes," the Rev. Kenneth Mullis, presiding minister.

Other events will include a ministers' luncheon at noon Sept. 25; a visit to Givens Estates at 11 a.m. Sept. 26; and Young At Heart Senior Citizens' luncheon, noon Sept. 27.

The Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission was established in memory of W.H. Harrison Sr. of Asheville and J. Paul Shaw of Raleigh.

Purpose of the event is to bring the ministry of outstanding religious leaders of various denominations to the people of Asheville, Buncombe County and the surrounding area.

While the mission is at Trinity United Methodist Church, the services are interdenominational and are designed to offer inspiration, Christian nurture and Christian fellowship to all people.

Former preachers include: the Rev. Stephen W. Brown, 1982; Sir Allen Walker, 1983; Myron Augsburger, 1984; Arthur Caliandro, 1985; the Rev. Peter Marshall, 1986; the Rev. Joel C. Gregory, 1987; and the Rev. Martin Minns, 1988.

A MINISTRY SINCE 1847

Dear Fellow Workers For Jesus Christ,

We are glad to announce that The Reverend Mrs. Barbara Brokhoff, approved Evangelist of the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church, will be our preacher for the Eighth Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission. Barbara will be with us Sunday, September 24 through Wednesday, September 27. The enclosed leaflet will give you information about Mrs. Brokhoff, the Mission schedule, and the purpose of the Mission.

You are invited to the Ministers' Lunch on Monday, September 25 at noon in the fellowship hall of Trinity Church. You will be guests of the Harrison family. Mrs. Brokhoff will bring us a message especially for persons in the ministry. This is one of the high moments of the Mission and we certainly hope you can be with us.

If you can join us please stamp and return the enclosed reservation card, indicate your plans, and return it by Wednesday, September 20.

These preaching services are interdenominational and all persons in the community are invited. We would appreciate announcements of the Preaching Mission in your church publications, classes, services, etc.

Mrs. Brokhoff is an excellent preacher and teacher. Early in her ministry in Missouri, Barbara served two pastorates membering 750 and 1100 members, respectively. Before her transfer to the Florida Conference, Barbara was an Approved Evangelist in the North Georgia Conference. At the present, Mrs. Brokhoff is primarily engaged in revivals and preaching missions; but she also preaches and teaches at Pastors' Schools, Annual Conferences, Retreats, etc. Often she and her husband, John Brokhoff; minister of the Lutheran Church in America and Professor Emeritus of Preaching at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, are engaged as a teaching/preaching team. Barbara is the author of four books and co-author of two others with her husband.

We are indeed fortunate to have Barbara as our Mission Preacher for 1989. We look forward to having you share this experience with us.

Sincerely,

William D. Clodfelter

William D. Clodfelter, Minister
Trinity United Methodist Church and

Dear Mrs. Brokhoff,

We are indebted to you! Thank you so much for sharing yourself and the faith so generously with us this week during The Harrison-Shaw Preaching Mission. I am glad I had the opportunity to be present on Sunday evening and Monday noon. I was blessed!

On behalf of our Residents, let me offer our heartfelt appreciation for your presence and message at Givens Estates today. I regret an unexpected problem prevented my being there.

It is my hope that you have taken back to Florida some of who we are and what we are about. You have certainly left us with many positive thoughts about living and sharing the Christian faith.

Blessings and joy to you!

With kindest regards,

James T. Trollinger

P. s. Thanks, too, for sharing Mrs. Brokhoff with Grace Estates. Our residents always appreciate that gesture!

Dear Mary Jo and Tom,

The Harrison - Shaw Preaching Mission is such a wonderful thing for Asheville! Thank you so much for making it possible year after year.

Barbara Brokhoff is a real jewel — your choice

LUNCH

The Harrison-Shaw PREACHING MISSION has been established in memory of W. S. Harrison, Sr. of Asheville and J. Paul Shaw of Raleigh, N. C. The purpose of the mission is to bring the ministry of outstanding religious leaders of various denominations to the people of Asheville, Buncombe County, and the surrounding area. While the mission is held at Trinity United Methodist Church the services are interdenominational and are designed to offer inspiration, Christian nurture and Christian fellowship to all people. It is our prayer that by uniting in this spiritual experience the churches of our community will be drawn closer together.

Song Leader, Don Welborn
Host Choir Director and Pianist, Bitsy Morgan
Host Organists, Judy McFadden and Dee Smith

THE FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR for these services are in honor of Mrs. W. S. Harrison, Sr. and Mrs. J. Paul Shaw.

Dear Tom and Mary Jo,

I want to thank you again for inviting me to be a part of the Harrison-Shaw Preaching Series. It was a good experience and I found the people who attended so very warm and open and receptive to the ministry of the Word.

And what shall I say of all the two of you did to make it so pleasant? Thank you for the generous honorarium, for the very confortable place to stay, for the prayers, for the parking space up close to the church (with my own special "box" to mark it), and for the months of planning details without number. But most of all, I am deeply grateful for your love for Christ and His church, and your earnest desire to make His Word known to the community. How wonderfully refreshing!

You are in my prayers, and I covet your prayers for our ministry as well.

Lovingly, in the Name of our Lord,

Barbara Brokhoff
